Public(Services) Department.
G.O.Ms.No.48, dated 7th January 1948.

ORDER:

Under paragraph 3 of G.O.No.821, Public(Services), dated 15th March 1947, Indian National Army personnel are treated, for purposes of appointment to the public services, in exactly the same way as ex-servicemen but they cannot be appointed to vacancies in the Police Services. The Government now direct that the ban on recruitment of Indian National Army men to the Police Services shall be removed with immediate effect except in the case of these who are guilty of acts of brutality

2. The Government have also decided that of the war reserved vacancies in all services (Provincial and Subordinate) for which war service candidates have not been selected so far a maximum of ten per cent, should be allotted to Indian National Army men who have already applied for such ~~vacancies~~ vacancies. In the case of posts in the Special Police units, however, not more than 5 per cent should be allotted.
